

Registration Form for LORIS 2003 Conference Exhibitors

Country:

Public Administration (regional, local):

Public services focus (citizens, business, and tourists):

Level of implementation (i.e. pilot, national, regional, local):

Web address:

Brief description:

Public services objectives:

Public services benefits (from the point of view of users and administration-e.g. time savings, staff made available for other activities, internal cost savings):

Interactivity level(Personalised information provision by administration, Intake of user information for provision of offline administrative service, Two-way online interaction, Full transactions- including payment), quality as perceived, online response time of administrations:

Availability and accessibility (e.g. access for special groups, online-offline versions):

Impact on reorganization of government processes:

Transferability (relevance for other public administrations, user identification, security, privacy, sharing of data, relating decentralised and centralised databases, interoperability, standards):

Operational implementation aspects (outsourcing, public-private partnership, how the service is being run, since when operational, etc.):

Experience and future prospects:

Exhibit technical requirements (i.e. hardware, networking, power supply, power backup, and software license):

Exhibitor contact information:

Implementing Organization:

Organization address:

Name of exhibitor:

Function in the organization:

E-mail:

Deadline for submission is 7th February 2003.